Scientific and societal impact

- Prioritizing Open Access publishing since 2012 for enabling Global South-based scholars and wider public in my research contexts in Indonesia and India to gain access to my research outputs
- Media-embedded publishing (Helsinki University Press) to enable multi-lingual audiences to gain access to my research results and findings in non-textual ways
- Developed research collaboration practices that emphasise equal treatment and positive career development for ECRs from global South
- Invited expert in the Parliamentary committees (Foreign Affairs; Employment and Equality)
