Instructions for participants in the public defence on how to arrive and leave the venue

- Doctoral candidate, custos and other participants can arrive at the public defence no earlier than half an hour before the start of the event.
- The maximum number of people who may occupy the venue is 50, including the custos, doctoral candidate and opponent.
- The attendees must visit the info desk as they arrive so that their contact information and the number of people going inside can be monitored.
  - If necessary, the candidate may have delivered a list of people whose admission must be prioritised to info desk staff in advance.

- All attendees must maintain a safe distance from one another

- Everyone must leave the building immediately after the event has ended in a controlled manner and by keeping a safe distance from others.