The supervision of a curriculum

Starting the studies from diverse backgrounds

Degree programme's PSP guidance and advising

Faculty's study services and tutors

Peer tutoring Students and tutors

Support and maintenance of ability to study

Teachers, tutors, support services, peers

Curriculum

Teachers, academic tutors

Career guidance, connections with working life and society, internationality

Teachers, tutors, support services

Themes to consider in the personal study plan (PSP):

- · choosing the studies and timing
- smooth progression of studies
- · maintenance of ability to study
- · finding one's own field, career planning and working life
- intergration to studies and the University community
- · development of expertise and research skills
- · development of general skills

Personal study plan

SISU

An expert who feels well and has attained the learning outcomes of the degree

