

Master's Degree Programme in Educational Leadership (MEL) invites you to the 9th annual

Educational Leadership Conference: Thinking Critically and Leading Ethically in Postdigital Futures

Thursday, 21 August 2025
at 8.30 – 12.30
TAMK, auditorium G00-10
Kuntokatu 3, Tampere, Finland

Sign up here to attend via Zoom

Time	Topic	Speaker
8.30	Opening words	Dr. Mika Hannula, President, TAMK
8.35	Researching at the intersection of education and technology: Thinking critically about the future	Dr. Neil Selwyn, Professor, School of Education Culture & Society, Monash University, Australia (online)
9.05	Civic education in a polarizing world – from competencies to compassion	Dr. Hanna Davis, Principal Lecturer, TAMK, Finland
9.35	Responsible leadership in the influencer economy - What can we do about it as educators and leaders?	Dr. Deike Schulz, Professor Organisations and Social Media, NHL-Stenden University of Applied Sciences, the Netherlands
10.05	Break
10.30	Digital ethics and sustainable futures – Research insights for educational leaders	Matias Nurminen, Researcher and Project Manager, DigiSus Research Platform, Tampere University, Finland
11.00	Futures Literacy – Interactive thinking tools	Dr. Jitske Gulmans-Weitenberg, Senior Lecturer, Hanze UNESCO Chair Futures Literacy, the Netherlands
11.30	Futures Intelligence – How to get a comprehensive overview of the future?	Dr. Tuomo Kuosa, Futurist and Research Director, Futures Platform, Finland
12.00	Panel discussion	Facilitator: Mark Curcher, Senior Lecturer, TAMK, Finland
12.30	Finish	